1. EXTERNAL EVENTS CRITERIA

All events must comply with the Saint Louis Art Museum (SLAM) policies, mission, and goals. Consistent with the objectives of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Museum facilities shall not be made to any organization that discriminates based on age, sex, color, religion, national origin, or condition of disability. Compliance of all laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, order regulations and requirements of federal, state, and local governments and all of their departments and bureaus is expected.

External Events

External events are defined as events that are not hosted and fully paid for by the Museum even if the sponsor is a Museum member, donor, board member, or employee.

The Museum does not endorse the views or positions of any external organization paying a rental fee to host an event at the Museum. Political events of any kind are prohibited.

Third party organizations may not imply any endorsement or link whatsoever between their organization and the Museum beyond the mention of the rental space as a venue. This includes language used on invitations to the event and/or any related marketing or public relations efforts.

Charitable Events

The Museum is pleased to accept applications from non-profit charitable organizations who wish to host events at the Museum campus. The Museum is a philanthropic organization. As a result, events at the Museum hosted by other non-profit charitable organizations are subject to the following limitations which are intended to avoid conflicts with the Museum’s accomplishment of its mission:

- Neither the event host nor any party other than the Museum may charge attendees for admission to the event, whether by way of ticket sales, food and beverage charges, table sponsorship charges, or otherwise.
- No live or silent auction may be held at the event.
- The event may not be advertised to the general public.

Events hosted by charitable organizations are also subject to all of the limitations stated elsewhere in this Policy, which apply generally to the hosting of events at the Museum, such as limitations on the timing and scheduling of events, event rental fees and deposits and limitations on how various portions of the Museum campus may be used.

The Museum’s Audio-Visual department has additional equipment that can be rented for events. Please contact the Catering Director for more details. Should the Museum be required to rent additional audio-visual equipment for an event, the Client will be charged the rental fee for the equipment plus 15% for the Museum arrangement of the rental.
3. TIME, SET UP, AND STAFFING

All events must end by 12:00 am. Last call for alcoholic beverages is one half hour before the scheduled end of the event and the bar is closed 15 minutes prior to the event’s end time. The last song played by a live band or DJ must be no later than 15 minutes prior to the event’s end time. Tear down must be completed by 1:00 am, unless otherwise authorized. Client has one half hour after the event to gather personal items. Additional charges will be billed for client employees in the Museum past 12:30 am. Setup begins no earlier than 3:00 pm the day of the event. Setup cannot impede visitor traffic or egress. All deliveries must be coordinated by Museum or catering staff. Deliveries can made through the front doors of Sculpture or Taylor Halls, South Auditorium/Group Entrance, or Dock 1 and must be inspected by Museum security upon entry and exit. All items must be removed from the Museum the night of the event. The Museum reserves the right to refuse deliveries. Only essential staff is allowed for set-up and breakdown of events. Client event staff must be escorted by Museum staff at all times. A final walk-thru prior to the event is required by the Museum Events Department, Registrar, and Security as necessitated and with a run of show.

Changes made to the event set up and timeline less than 2 weeks prior to the Event date that adversely affect the Museum and Catering staff scheduling.

4. ADDITIONAL POLICIES

General

All requests for after-hours facility rental must be submitted to the Museum Events Department for review. All aspects of the Client’s event must meet the approval of Saint Louis Art Museum and its authorized representative. SLAM reserves the right to modify, change or add artwork or objects within the parameters of the Museum without notice. This also includes the addition or cancellation of traveling art exhibits and in gallery conservation work. Client shall submit a list of all vendors involved in the Event at least 3 weeks prior to the event date for approval.
Food and Beverage
Catering for all events is handled exclusively by Culinaire International d/b/a SLAM Events. Food and beverages are allowed, with restrictions, in the following spaces: Sculpture Hall, Grigg Gallery, Taylor Hall, Auditorium Lobby, Museum Restaurant, and the Concourse. Alcohol may not be served in or carried outside the building without prior licensing. No bottles or cans may be served to guests. Food and beverage may not be served on trays in Grigg Gallery. Red wine is permitted in specified spaces/galleries with restrictions. Specialty cakes or kosher items may be purchased from an outside vendor. Outside food or beverage is not permitted.

Gallery and Floral Installations and Deinstallations
The Museum reserves the right to change works of art on view due to loan requirements, rotations, and other purposes. The Museum also reserves the right to change the floral installations in Sculpture Hall monthly per an endowment stipulation.

Occupancy Rates
The room(s) designated for the Event has a minimum and maximum occupancy rate. If the final guaranteed number is lower than the occupancy rate, the Saint Louis Art Museum and SLAM Events reserve the right to transfer the Event upon prior notice to Client to a comparable space within the Museum, without increasing the room rentals, security charges or other fees associated with the Event. If the final guaranteed number is higher than the occupancy rate, SLAM Events reserves the right to transfer the Event upon prior notice to the Client to a suitable space, at which point increased rental fees and security costs may apply.

Right of Inspection
The Saint Louis Art Museum and SLAM Events reserve the right to access, inspect, and control the Event at all times. This right includes, but is not limited to, the right to end the Event at any time without liability or penalty of any kind to the SLAM or SLAM Events. Reasons for ending the Event may include, but are not limited to, the following: crowd control, illegal substance discovered at the Event, fire code or policy violations or disorderly conduct among guests.

Security
The Saint Louis Art Museum has a professional security staff on duty at all times. SLAM will determine the additional number of security personal required, if any, for each event and notify the Client at the time of booking. There may be additional fees for security personnel, particularly if galleries outside of normal event spaces are requested. That will be determined on a case-by-case basis by the Museum Events Department. Any non-Museum security personnel or equipment must be approved in advance by the Protection Services Department.

Equipment / Audio Visual / Sound / Entertainment
Requests for the use of any outside audiovisual equipment must be submitted to the Museum Events Department in advance for approval. Venues acceptable for music, with prior approval, are Sculpture Hall, Taylor Hall, Grigg Gallery, the Auditorium, Auditorium Lobby, Sculpture Terrace, and the Concourse. Amplified music is limited by space and acoustic considerations. Photo booths are permitted in Taylor Hall, Sculpture Hall, the Concourse, and Auditorium Lobby. The Saint Louis Art Museum reserves the right to approve all musical groups/DJs/entertainers, to set appropriate sound levels for all entertainment, and to monitor volume levels. The Museum is not responsible for equipment that is damaged or malfunctioning.

Museum Gift Shop
The Museum Shop may be open for special events at an additional fee to be determined on a case-by-case basis.
SAINT LOUIS ART MUSEUM

Program Content
Should a guest speaker(s) be included as part of an event, the speaking program and/or topic must be non-partisan in nature. In order to confirm compliance with this requirement, each speaker’s name and topic must be submitted in writing to the Museum at least six weeks prior to the event for approval.

Media / Photography / Videos
The name of the Saint Louis Art Museum may not be used on any document. The Museum does not permit or authorize the use of its name or images to be used to promote or advertise an event. Any printed/visual/broadcast materials (i.e. brochures, invitations, advertisements, press kits, letterheads, press releases, etc.) produced for an event must be submitted to the Museum’s Marketing Department for approval prior to use.

To effectively facilitate the requests of media reporting on news and events at the Saint Louis Art Museum, as well as protect the works of art in the Museum’s collection, the privacy of the Museum’s patrons and the artist’s rights, the Division of External Affairs has established the following additional guidelines for external events:
