[Martin Luther King Jr. in a low-pitched voice] I have a dream [echoing]

[Martin Luther King Jr.] …that one day

[Speaker shouts] Yeah!

[Martin Luther King Jr.] …this, this nation will rise up and live, live out the true meaning of its creed [sound of record stopping]

[Martin Luther King Jr.] We, we hold these truths to be self-evident, that all, that all men are created equal.

[Speaker shouts] Yeah!

[cheering and applause]

[Martin Luther King Jr.] I have a dream. I have a dream. I have a dream. I have a dream. [sound of record stopping]

[Martin Luther King Jr.] I have a dream [echoing]
[Martin Luther King Jr.] …that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character. [echoing]

[Martin Luther King Jr.] I have a dream today. I have a dream today. I, I have a dream today. I have a dream today. I have a dream today

[Martin Luther King Jr.] I have a dream [echoing]

[Martin Luther King Jr.] that one day on the red hills of Georgia [echoing]

[Martin Luther King Jr.] …the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.

[Martin Luther King Jr.] I have a dream. I have a dream. I have a dream

[applause in low pitch]
